26th/27th January 2019 Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

I wish to thank you all for your most heart-warming and generous way of celebrating my 75th birthday last weekend. In the Mass readings we were reminded about the rich variety of gifts God gives to a crowd of people (1Cor. 12:4-11) to be used for the good of all. The Gospel (John 2:1-11) retold the wedding feast at Cana and the Lord's response to those who seek his help. You are good witnesses to these values. I was delighted we were going to have a party also, but obviously I had no idea what to expect. To be overwhelmingly surprised by the great turnout of people, the quantity and variety of food, the well organised way the conveyor belt worked was a great experience and for that I am deeply grateful. I also wish to include in that expression of gratitude my brother Con and his wife Mary and my sister Kathleen.

Sharing the special moments of life with the people you respect, love and care about is not afforded to everybody, so I am thankful to God for giving my family such good friends and the health to enjoy it. I look forward to serving you all as best I can in the future and hope that I will have enough humility to recognise my limitations always.

With all my love and best wishes,
Fr John

PS. There was a superabundance of food to the extent that it was like the 12 baskets full in the Gospel. You will be glad to know that much of this was sent to the night shelter on the A30, a reminder to us that while we ate plenty many others did not have anything or even one good meal that day.

On Tuesday of this week at 11am there is a Requiem Mass for Bruno Leoni RIP. You will be most welcome if you can come.

Car parking on the pavement: Please do not park on the pavement for Mass. There is an increasing number of complaints being made and some have even accompanied their words with photos and you can read certain registrations. Sadly, there is a pronounced aggressiveness evident in the way people express their complaint.

Next weekend, Feb 2nd/3rd, we will call Name Tag Sunday. See note overleaf.

Finally: Jim to his pal Frank: "Would you lend me £20, but only give me £10. Then you'll owe me £10 and I'll owe you £10 and then we'll be quits."

God Bless you all,
Fr John

Please pray for all those who have died recently
Patrick Cullen, Loretta Johnston, Bruno Leoni
May they rest in peace.

Please pray for all those who are sick at this time
Marie Bellizzi, Teresa Brown, Lally Clarke, Florence Cox, Hermanthe Fernando, Des Grumley, Elizabeth Mary Jones, Gill Kirwin, Paul Pullen, Wilson Rabanos, Margaret Sant, Colin and Gill Shaw, Pat Sibley, Alfonsa Varghese, Margaret Viegas and Mark Wardell and all those named on the notice board in Our Lady's Shrine
May they find consolation in their suffering.

Our Church has been chosen to present World Day of Prayer. This year it has been prepared by the women of Slovenia.

I need a small group of people to help me – two readers and help with serving light refreshments after the service. If you can help, please contact Mary Reynolds tel 01252 837448 mobile 07754 933597.

If you brought your own crockery with you to Fr John's birthday lunch last Sunday 20th January and have not yet taken it back, please can you collect it from the hall kitchen. Thank you.

Missio Red Boxes

The red box round up is due and I would be grateful if you would return your box to the Presbytery over the next couple of weeks. Please make sure your name is on the box. Many thanks, Paul.

Envelope Donors

Hello to all envelope donors,

I have appealed twice for volunteers to switch to standing order donating and am rather surprised that there are no volunteers as yet. As Fr John said in the newsletter two weeks ago: 'you will not need to blush as many pass the basket without putting anything in. Why? They have standing orders and the counters on a Monday morning say: "Praise the Lord."'

The process to change is simple and can be done at any time: it starts by sending an e-mail to giftaid.olqh@hotmail.co.uk or phoning me on 01276 29596. Please!
